

Good Guys Pro-USA and Opponents of LOST	Bad Guys Traitors of the USA and champions of LOST
President Ronald Reagan (deceased)	George W. Bush, president
Frank J. Gaffney, Jr., head of Center for Security Policy	Condoleezza Rice, secretary of state
Edwin Meese, Attorney General for Ronald Reagan	John Negroponte, deputy secretary of state
William P. Clark	John Bellinger, legal advisor, US state department
Ambassador James Malone (deceased)	Harry Reid, senator (NV)
Senator David Vitter (LA)	Richard Lugar, senator (IN)
Senator James Inhofe (OK)	Joe Biden, senator (DE)
Senator Bob Corker (TN)	impeached ex-president Bill Clinton
Senator John Cornyn (TX)	Senate Foreign Relations Committee
Senator Jim DeMint (SC)	Satya Nandan, ISA secretary general
Senator John Ensign (NV)	Constance Arvis, state department official, ocean affairs
Senator Jon Kyl (AZ)	Bernard Oxman, ex-Navy, co-author of LOST draft
Senator Trent Lott (MS)	Rear Admiral Bruce MacDonald, Navy, judge advocate
Senator Mitch McConnell (KY)	Admiral John E. Crowley, US Coast Guard
Senator Jeff Sessions (AL)	Vernon Clark, former Chief of Naval Operations
Congressman Duncan Hunter (CA)	United Nations bureaucrats and potentates (despots)
Congressman Roy Blunt (MO)	ISA's Tribunal (21 "judges" in Hamburg, Germany)
Admiral James "Ace" Lyons (retired) Pacific Fleet Command	Dr. William C.G. Burns, law scholar
Nithi Sam-Thambiah, whistleblower, ex-ISA	China, Russia, India governments
Cliff Kincaid, Accuracy in Media	150 small nations rulers and UN ambassadors
Tom Fitton, Judicial Watch	"private interests", transnational businesses, anti-patriots
Dr. Peter Leitner, George Mason University	enviro-nazis dying to put oceans off-limits and sue business
Jeremy Rabkin, Enterprise Institute	"Lawfare" lawyers dying to sue America for "polluting" seas
David Ridenour, Center for Public Policy
Cato Institute
Center for Individual Freedom
The list of players is longer. These players are major newsmakers. This quickly says who's who ~ good (pro-USA) or bad (anti-USA).

Good Guys

Pro-USA and Opponents of LOST

President Ronald Reagan (deceased)
Frank J. Gaffney, Jr., head of Center for Security Policy
Edwin Meese, Attorney General for Ronald Reagan
William P. Clark
Ambassador James Malone (deceased)
Senator David Vitter (LA)
Senator James Inhofe (OK)
Senator Bob Corker (TN)
Senator John Cornyn (TX)
Senator Jim DeMint (SC)
Senator John Ensign (NV)
Senator Jon Kyl (AZ)
Senator Trent Lott (MS)
Senator Mitch McConnell (KY)
Senator Jeff Sessions (AL)
Congressman Duncan Hunter (CA)
Congressman Roy Blunt (MO)
Admiral James "Ace" Lyons (retired) Pacific Fleet Command
Nithi Sam-Thambiah, whistleblower, ex-ISA
Cliff Kincaid, Accuracy in Media
Tom Fitton, Judicial Watch
Dr. Peter Leitner, George Mason University
Jeremy Rabkin, Enterprise Institute
David Ridenour, Center for Public Policy
Cato Institute
Center for Individual Freedom

Bad Guys

Traitors of the USA and champions of LOST

George W. Bush, president
Condoleezza Rice, secretary of state
John Negroponte, deputy secretary of state
John Bellinger, legal advisor, US state department
Harry Reid, senator (NV)
Richard Lugar, senator (IN)
Joe Biden, senator (DE)
impeached ex-president Bill Clinton
Senate Foreign Relations Committee
Satya Nandan, ISA secretary general
Constance Arvis, state department official, ocean affairs
Bernard Oxman, ex-Navy, co-author of LOST draft
Rear Admiral Bruce MacDonald, Navy, judge advocate
Admiral John E. Crowley, US Coast Guard
Vernon Clark, former Chief of Naval Operations
United Nations bureaucrats and potentates (despots)
ISA's Tribunal (21 "judges" in Hamburg, Germany)
Dr. William C.G. Burns, law scholar
China, Russia, India governments
150 small nations rulers and UN ambassadors
"private interests", transnational businesses, anti-patriots
enviro-nazis dying to put oceans off-limits and sue business
"Lawfare" lawyers dying to sue America for "polluting" seas

The list of players is longer. These players are major newsmakers.
This quickly says who's who ~ good (pro-USA) or bad (anti-USA).

Good Guys

Pro-USA and Opponents of LOST

President Ronald Reagan (deceased)
Frank J. Gaffney, Jr., head of Center for Security Policy
Edwin Meese, Attorney General for Ronald Reagan
William P. Clark
Ambassador James Malone (deceased)
Senator David Vitter (LA)
Senator James Inhofe (OK)
Senator Bob Corker (TN)
Senator John Cornyn (TX)
Senator Jim DeMint (SC)
Senator John Ensign (NV)
Senator Jon Kyl (AZ)
Senator Trent Lott (MS)
Senator Mitch McConnell (KY)
Senator Jeff Sessions (AL)
Congressman Duncan Hunter (CA)
Congressman Roy Blunt (MO)
Admiral James "Ace" Lyons (retired) Pacific Fleet Command
Nithi Sam-Thambiah, whistleblower, ex-ISA
Cliff Kincaid, Accuracy in Media
Tom Fitton, Judicial Watch
Dr. Peter Leitner, George Mason University
Jeremy Rabkin, Enterprise Institute
David Ridenour, Center for Public Policy
Cato Institute
Center for Individual Freedom

Bad Guys

Traitors of the USA and champions of LOST

George W. Bush, president
Condoleezza Rice, secretary of state
John Negroponte, deputy secretary of state
John Bellinger, legal advisor, US state department
Harry Reid, senator (NV)
Richard Lugar, senator (IN)
Joe Biden, senator (DE)
impeached ex-president Bill Clinton
Senate Foreign Relations Committee
Satya Nandan, ISA secretary general
Constance Arvis, state department official, ocean affairs
Bernard Oxman, ex-Navy, co-author of LOST draft
Rear Admiral Bruce MacDonald, Navy, judge advocate
Admiral John E. Crowley, US Coast Guard
Vernon Clark, former Chief of Naval Operations
United Nations bureaucrats and potentates (despots)
ISA's Tribunal (21 "judges" in Hamburg, Germany)
Dr. William C.G. Burns, law scholar
China, Russia, India governments
150 small nations rulers and UN ambassadors
"private interests", transnational businesses, anti-patriots
enviro-nazis dying to put oceans off-limits and sue business
"Lawfare" lawyers dying to sue America for "polluting" seas

The list of players is longer. These players are major newsmakers.
This quickly says who's who ~ good (pro-USA) or bad (anti-USA).
