Dear Assemblyman Ting,

We Roman Catholic Christians worship the Triune God of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, the God who creates us, keeps us spiritually healthy, and saves us from harm.

As Church we perpetuate our belief in Him and His divine law to our children in Catholic schools. All who work in our schools need publicly to state that they will teach and act as Catholics while they are in our employ.

In America we have freedom of religion and competition of ideas for the hearts and minds of our citizens.

If some wish to worship the god of homosexuality, then they may in our system of government.

We Catholics believe that God heals from homosexuality those who seek it so they may live chastely and respect Him. We will teach this in our churches, in our schools, in the streets; and if you wish you may believe otherwise.

We private citizens carry our ideas forth. Elected and appointed officials like yourself need to keep us free from interference and oppression of our ideas, and should not use your office and power to impose your beliefs upon us.

When you leave public office for the private life, we would welcome your engagement of ideas once again.

Jesus Christ yesterday, today, and forever.

Blessings,

Fr. Richard Perozich
