

There is nothing good, faithful or Catholic about ending my life.

One of the most important principles in Catholic Social Justice is respecting the dignity of human life. According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, “Human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception. From the first moment of his existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person—among which is the inviolable right of every innocent being to life...This teaching has not changed and remains unchangeable.”

You cannot be Catholic and pro-abortion.

Know the Truth: Life is good

The Women's Centers of Greater Chicagoland is a nonprofit organization that reaches out to women contemplating abortion with services and support that affirm the dignity of life of both mother and child. For more information, visit www.gotwc.org
